Mayor Quinn - There is a new telephone scam going on. The caller says that they have a warrant for you and if you do not forward money to an account immediately that you will be arrested. This is totally false. The FBI, or any other agency, will not tell you over the telephone that they have warrants for you. If any organization has warrants for you, they will come to get you in person. Don't believe everything you hear. Just hang up on these types of telephone calls.
