ENGINEER – Mrs. Nelson

MacDade Blvd. (SR 2006) over Bridge of Muckinipates Creek

I wanted to start by correcting last month's report. The section of sewer damaged by PECO was an existing section of concrete pipe not the newer installation. It was repaired properly, Last reimbursement for engineering services was requested 3/7/15. We are still gathering info for Borough to request 75% of fees.

FY 2017 CDBG – Glenolden Park Trail

I brought contracts for Borough signatures this evening. The next step in the process is the preconstruction meeting which will be scheduled once OHCD has their copy of the signed contract.

FY 2018 CDBG – Lamont Park

$179,993 was awarded by the County in their 2018 Action Plan. The County will be sending Subrecipient Agreements for signature and then schedule the kick-off meeting.

Aqua

Final roadway restoration for the S. Ridgeway Project. As well as roadway rehab on Ashland @ Glen Circle.

Sanitary Sewers

I brought with me Sanitary Sewer maps for Public Works use in marking one-call lines.

Bridge repairs on Hibbs and Academy

A reminder of the notice the Borough received from PennDOT's biennial inspections that revealed repair work is needed.

MS-4

As advertised on the website for this evening I presented recent events undertaken by the Eastern Delaware County Stormwater Collaborative.

- The revised allocation of Costs/Credits in the Pollution Reduction Plan – Glenolden's being 7.34%.
- 2018 School programs with Interboro High School having presentations on April 26th and May 21st, along with others in the Collaborative region
- MS4 Good Housekeeping Training conducted at Glenolden Borough Hall on May 24th. The Borough Manager added his recap of a very informative session.

Proclamation by Mayor and Council of Glenolden Borough

Celebrating the 115th Anniversary of The Glenolden Congregational Church

Whereas, The Glenolden Congregational Church was founded June 22, 1903, built in 1907. The Glenolden Congregational Church was formed with a membership of 60 and was recognized by a regular Ecclesiastical Council on June 30, 1903. Reverend George R. Lockwood was called as the first pastor on December 2, 1903 and served as the spiritual leader for eight years.

Whereas In 1907, the corner lot at Scott and Gardner Avenues was secured, where an artistic chapel was built. In April of 1912 Reverend Arthur M. Wood served a brief period, but due to illness was replaced in May of 1913 by Reverend William H. Medlar. With the boys of a Lenten Class, Rev. Medlar organized the first Boy Scout Troop in Glenolden in May 1914 and served as first Scoutmaster. An Intermediate Christian Endeavor Society was organized in 1915 with Miss Flora Jenkins as Superintendent.

Whereas, On April 27 of 1949, at a Congregational Meeting, plans were presented for a new church sanctuary and a remodeling of the present building for educational purposes. Plans were approved, and the ground breaking was held on July 2, 1950. A document of this historical event was placed in the cornerstone at the ceremony held on Sunday, September 24, 1950. The larger part of the Service was held in the Church Chapel and Rev. Lockwood the first Pastor, Rev Harry Myers Jr., who helped organize the congregation, Mr. Charles Holmes, our Summer Supply and Mrs. W. Gilbert Condit, wife of the late Rev. W. Gilbert Condit, a former pastor of the church all participated in the service.

Whereas, Over the years nearly 19 pastors have served while contributing to the spiritual, social, and economic development of Glenolden and surrounding communities.

Whereas, Reverend Philip Brookes 2001-2014 (wife Lynne) retired. He worked in close contact with the boards, and together with the Director of Music, Don Hughes. The church was their home, which you could see with the many seasonal decorations. Pastor Brookes took over the duties in the main office and organized the church each week for the Sunday services.

Whereas, Reverend William E. Bounds was elected as Pastor at the 2016 Annual meeting. Pastor Bounds and his wife Debbie bring an atmosphere of hope and encouragement to the Church. His desire is to serve in the capacity of under-shepherd to God's call.

Now, Therefore, Be It Proclaimed that the Mayor and Council of the Borough of Glenolden officially recognize and honor the accomplishments and connection of The Glenolden Congregational Church and of its congregation on the occasion of this 115th Year Anniversary Celebration.

By Order of the The Mayor
