ENGINEER – Mrs. Nelson

MacDade Blvd. (SR 2006) over Bridge of Muckinipates Creek

Last reimbursement for engineering services was requested 3/7/15. We are gathering info for Borough to request 75% of fees. Sanitary sewer install is complete. PECO damaged a section of new sewer and we are working with Contractor to have corrected. We got email correspondence yesterday indicating they are removing the guiderail at Mr. Hart's property 425 Werner (Loftus Construction).

FY 2017 CDBG – Glenolden Park Trail

Contracts are being processed. A preconstruction meeting with Cleaver and OHCD is required prior to Notice to Proceed.

FY 2018 CDBG – Lamont Park

$179,993 was awarded by the County in their 2018 Action Plan. Next step in the process is to conduct kick-off meeting.

Glenolden Park – Lower Section

Grant application was successfully submitted on April 17, 2018. The application was prepared to provide an accessible parking spot and ADA accessible path to the Lower Park.

Amtrak

I prepared a response to Amtrak's letter regarding "undocumented" facilities in their right-of-way. Amtrak's consultant acknowledged receipt and said they would be in touch if they needed anything else.

Aqua

Final roadway restoration for the S. Ridgeway Project.

We are following up with roadway rehab on Ashland @ Glen Circle.

MS-4

Sent Borough Manager notice to put on website re: June 19, 2018 Annual Presentation on Stormwater management program.

SOLICITOR – Mr. Puppio stated that they have entered our appearance on behalf of Glenolden Borough as an interested party in the Beer and Wine Application of Royal Farms. Mr. Puppio will advise the borough when that hearing will take place. Mr. Puppio's office also participated in the Amtrak matter with Mrs. Nelson's office. Hopefully this matter is now resolved.

Mr. Puppio would also like to commend Council and Mrs. Nelson on the award of the OHCD grant. There is a lot of hard work involved in the application process and he would like to congratulate everyone in receiving this grant.
