Councilman McGettigan read two (2) letters written by Chief of Police, Jay Kelly to Officer Brent Gensemer and Officer Jesse Wingate. The letters commended the Officers for their commitment to the protection of persons and property in the Borough of Glenolden. While the officers were off duty, they spotted a potential suspect of the vandalism crime that occurred to borough property in September 2017. Their investigation lead to the apprehension and arrest of the suspect. A great job by these Officers.

Borough Manager, Brian Razzi – Would like to remind everyone that the E-Waste and Shredding Event is being held on Saturday, October 28, 2017 from 9:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. Because of the overwhelming response to the previous e-waste event, Glenolden borough identification will be required. The borough has handed out 68 recycle cans during the period of October 4, 2017 through October 17, 2017. This is due to the fact that you can no longer put recyclables out in plastic bags.
